

MENTAL HEALTH ANTHOLOGY - MIGRANT DISPARITIES

CALL FOR ARTICLES/CREATIVE WORKS
Deadline: July 15, 2022

HPHR Journal (formerly Harvard Public Health Review) announces a call for submissions for an upcoming book-length anthology about mental health disparities among marginalized groups. This call is for articles and creative works related to people move between countries, including voluntary and involuntary migration. This would include immigrant populations, asylum-seekers, refugees, survivors of forced displacements, and unaccompanied minors.

We are especially interested in research, evidence-based editorials, photo-essays, creative works (short stories, poetry, short screenplays, visual art, etc.), and/or written reflections leveraging innovative theoretical perspectives and methodologies, as follows:

- The mental health effects of sexual assault for these populations
- The toll of repeated or sustained trauma
- Intersectional groups (e.g. Black Caribbean immigrants, brown migrant farm workers, and unaccompanied minors)
- Armed conflict
- Policy, regulatory, and other solutions to these mental health crises
