

MENTAL HEALTH ANTHOLOGY - SEXUAL ORIENTATION DISPARITIES

CALL FOR ARTICLES/CREATIVE WORKS
Deadline: July 15, 2022

HPHR Journal (formerly Harvard Public Health Review) announces a call for submissions for an upcoming book-length anthology about mental health disparities among marginalized groups. This call is for articles and creative works related to people marginalized by their sexual orientation, including all orientations beyond heterosexual.

We are especially interested in research, evidence-based editorials, photo-essays, creative works (short stories, poetry, short screenplays, visual art, etc.), and/or written reflections leveraging innovative theoretical perspectives and methodologies, as follows:

- Unique mental health challenges of bisexual people
- Mental health effects of coming out
- Challenges of intersectional groups (e.g. gay Asian men and unhoused queer youth)
- Trauma
- Disparate suicide rates
- Substance misuse and abuse
- Policy, regulatory, and other solutions to these mental health crises
